GENERAL NOTES

JAYE GRANT - 01/31/2025 @ 15:53

Upon system inspection by FOTIA. I was notified that there is no hood suppression agent to service the system in case of an emergency. Upon researching the plan for the system the current setup does not match the approved plans. I spoke with Captain McCloud and reported the situation. Captain McCloud recommends pausing cooking operations until hood suppression system is fully operational. The message was relayed to the owner Mr. Ash. Mr. Ash was also notified that due to the outstanding violation the process for taking this case to the City Code Magistrate will begin.
